

The UT Dallas Center for Children and Families presents its Spring Public Lecture Series

“Raising Healthy Infants: Language and Learning”

providing the latest research and practical information for parents and families to nurture children’s optimal development

Talks will be held Friday mornings, 9:30 to 10:30 am, followed by a reception until 11.

Location: School of Management (SOM) 1.212, with on-campus parking available

February 19th

“Words are Not Enough: Social Communication and the Early Signs of Autism”

Speaker: Pamela Rollins, Ed.D.

<http://www.utdallas.edu/~rollins/>

March 26th

“Early Language Development in Infants and Toddlers”

Speaker: Mandy Maguire, Ph.D.

<http://bbs.utdallas.edu/brainlab/>

April 16th

“The Importance of Book Sharing in the First Two Years”

Speaker: Anne van Kleeck, Ph.D.

<http://www.utdallas.edu/calliercenter/research/labs/van-kleeck.php>

May 21st

“Learning about the World: An Infant’s Perspective”

Speaker: Melanie Spence, Ph.D.

<http://bbs.utdallas.edu/ilp/>